The LAW School supports academic research and graduate education in the law at the University of Chicago. With the academic departments, committees, programs, and research centers of the Division, we provide rigorous academic training in 6 programs led by globally recognized experts in support of research and creative expression.

PROFESSOR ADAM CHILTON
Faculty Member Adam Chilton will be providing further details at the Information Session.

He is the Professor of Law, Walter Mander Research Scholar at the University of Chicago Law School.

WHO WE ARE
AWARD-WINNING FACULTY
University of Chicago faculty members are passionate researchers and leaders in their respective fields, producing innovative and award-winning scholarship and art. Our faculty members include a Pulitzer Prize-winning composer, winners of the Melton Distinguished Achievement Award, members of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and recipients of the Guggenheim Memorial Foundation Fellowship.

AN URBAN UNIVERSITY
The University of Chicago is home to more than 15,000 students—almost 10,000 of whom are graduate or professional students. Chicago is the 3rd largest city in America and boasts a robust employment market in academia and many professional fields. A few miles from downtown and minutes from the lakefront, the University of Chicago positions its students to contribute to and benefit from this thriving metropolis.

DEGREE PROGRAMS
- Masters of Law (LLM)
- Master of Legal Studies (MLS)
- Juris Doctorate (JD) Program
- Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) Program

DATE | TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2019
VENUE | UNITED STATES-INDIA EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION (USIEF), NEW DELHI
ADDRESS | 12, HAILEY RD, NEW DELHI, 110001
TIME | 3 PM - 4 PM

PLEASE CLICK HERE TO REGISTER